*"Your needs
are our concern"*

The First United Methodist Church of Auburn

When they came to the place called "the skull", they nailed Jesus to the cross there, and the two criminals, one on his right and one on his left.

Luke 23:33

Partners in Ministry

The Bible reminds us that our Lord gave his life on a hill between two crosses. The one held someone who regretted his wasted life and wanted another chance. On the other cross was one who in his bitterness was blind to the loving presence of God. The needs of both were of concern to the One in the middle.

Our worship setting features three crosses, too. The central cross reaches out to its nearest companion and embraces it — like our Lord embraced him who wanted another chance. But the cross on the right stands alone — much as did he who refused to accept God's love in our Lord. In these crosses, the story of man's need and God's concern is told again and again for us in Auburn Church.

God meets our need in Christ. We find our salvation in Him and our fellowship in His church reinforces our faith. Like one who met our Lord on a cross, we are given another chance by asking and receiving God's forgiveness.

Others need Christ, too. So we share in a church who shows a concern for those who stand alone — frequently angry, often hurt, and sometimes bitter, but always needing the love of our Lord. To such persons we of the church say "your need is our concern." And we mean it!

This directory should help us to know who we are so we can share our concern more comfortably. And may we learn to care as much about the needs of others as we do for ourselves!

a History of Caring for Auburn

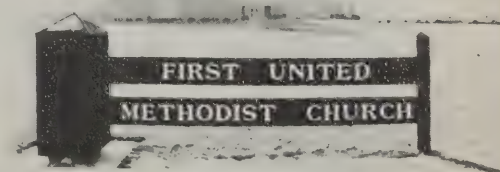

United Methodists have deep roots in the town of Auburn. Within three years after Wesley Park founded the town in 1836, Reverend Samuel Reed organized a Methodist Society in Auburn. Mr. Park, his wife Sophia, and Fannie Smith were the first three members of the fledgling church. By 1847 the group having grown to 60 members could no longer crowd into Park's cabin. In 1849 they dedicated what is believed to be Auburn's first church building on land donated by the Parks at the corner of Cedar and East Seventh. Following a fruitful revival in 1890 the church of nearly 300 members laid plans for a larger building on the corner of North VanBuren and Seventh Streets. By 1968 when Methodists joined the Evangelical United Brethren to become the United Methodist Church, the church in Auburn had grown to 1300 members. In 1971, growing needs for expansion and deteriorating facilities prompted relocation to the edge of town on East Seventh Street.

1890 - 1971

taking Root in a New Neighborhood

When United Methodists moved from downtown Auburn in 1971, they transplanted the church to a new neighborhood. A new building was constructed on six acres of land at the east edge of town. Neighboring homes have rural mailboxes and only a few sidewalks. Downtown shops are no longer around the corner and older children take buses to school. Families who moved here wanted the same opportunity as did our church - better housing and more room to grow. Here, families lead busy and complex lives - enjoying small town advantages while benefitting from their proximity to Fort Wayne's urban influence. Sometimes, however, our neighbors yield to the pressures of technology and the temptations of affluence. They wonder about life's meanings and worry about the future of traditional moral values. Our neighbors need the assurance of faith in Christ to hold them steady. Their need is our Church's concern. Our history of caring now takes root in a new neighborhood on East Seventh Street at the east edge of Auburn. No longer located in the heart of town, we United Methodists are re-focusing our mission so that we may love our neighbors in our new location.
